THE NATIONAL BALLET OF CANADA

Spectacular opening to the 1988 Dance Series

A wonderful way to enjoy university life is to take advantage of the spectacular array of arts that surround campus life. The Cohn offers an ongoing presentation of quality entertainment for everyone to enjoy, and it's well worth keeping up to date with what's on.

The Dalhousie Arts Center is proud to Present THE NATIONAL BALLET OF CANADA at The Cohn on September 21st, 22nd, 23rd and 24th at 8:00 p.m. The Ballet is the opening event of the Dal Dance Spectacular 1988.

"The National Ballet of Canada represents the best of Canadian dance companies... This company (is) developing a distinctly Canadian voice of their own, and a very welcome one too: athletic, physical, excitingly technical, and yet laced with a lyrical feel for the music." Nicholas Dromgoole, The Sunday Telegraph, London.

The Company was founded in 1951 by Celia Franca, an English dancer who had come to Canada at the invitation of a group of ballet lovers in Toronto. As the premier dance company in Canada there are 70 dancers, it is the third largest troupe in North America and the fifth largest in the world.

LES BUCHERONS (THE LUMBERJACKS) present a children's entertainment event Sunday September 25 at 2:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. at the Cohn.

It is a celebration of the French-Canadian "Joie-de-Vivre", through instruments, songs, stories and dance.

The Montreal based Theatre Sans Fil's production THE LORD OF THE RINGS is being presented at The Cohn, September 29th and 30th at 8:00 p.m.

Die-hard Tolkien freaks that lovingly call themselves 'Ringworms' shouldn't miss this production by what is recognized as one of the finest puppet troupes in the world.

For more information, contact the Cohn box office at 424-2646.

Speakeasy

A Speakeasy Program on how to talk to groups calmly and confidently is being offered at the Councelling Center. This free, five-session program will be of particular interest to students who find that apprehension and tension make it difficult for them to give class presentations or participate in group discussions.

For further information, phone 424-2081 or come in person to the center on the 4th floor of the S.U.B.

Get an edge on the competition.
Improve your performance on the 1988 Foreign Service Exam with this special Prep Seminar!

Have you ever considered the possibility of a foreign service career? For students in many disciplines, it could be the kind of thing they are looking for.

On Thursday September 22, 1988, at 4:00 p.m. in the SUB, there will be a free lecture that previews the only prep seminar in Canada designed to improve performance on the upcoming Foreign Service Competition exam and interviews.

The lecture will be followed at 5:15 p.m. by the paid prep seminar. The seminar is a six-hour 'intensive training program' designed to prepare those seeking the exam and interview.

The cost for students with IDs from sponsoring universities (Dal, St. Mary's, Mt. St. Vincent, & TUNS included) is $95.00. This fee includes the seminar and a specially compiled study kit (available separately for $40.00) that contains sample exam questions and covers the full range of tips for the day long interview session. The kit comes with full instructions on how to use it.

For more information, call the SUB enquiry desk at 424-2140 or contact Foreign Service Examination & Career Counselling, Inc., Suit 508, 404 Laurier East, Ottawa K1N 6R2, (613) 232-3497.

at Dalhousie

There are numerous organizations at Dalhousie that offer the student body a variety of opportunities to pursue personal interests. From time to time the DISPATCH will try to present an inside view of what could be what you want to get involved with.

Recently, the director of the Photography Department of the Student Union, Paul Grandy, was asked a few questions about the department's role at Dal.

DISPATCH: WHAT EXACTLY DOES THE PHOTOGRAPHY DEPARTMENT OF THE STUDENT UNION HAVE TO OFFER DAL STUDENTS?

PAULL: The Photo Dept. of the DSU, Dal Photo, offers students the opportunity to learn photography from people who have been involved in scholastic photojournalism for a number of years, and to have their photos published in the yearbook and various student newspapers—primarily the Gazette.

The department also operates a camera club where students gain personal use of the darkroom for a small fee.

It's a place to meet people, have fun, work hard and learn.

DISPATCH: WHAT KIND OF EXPERIENCE IS NECESSARY IN ORDER TO GET INVOLVED? IF YOU'RE NOT A PRO, WHAT THEN?

PAULL: There's no experience necessary to join Dal Photo. We offer workshops to our new members who learn everything from pushing the button to making the print.

Of course, in addition to the formal instruction there's always the opportunity to ask questions about our work. There are no experts; we learn from each other. In a few months time, I suspect our new members will have things to teach me.

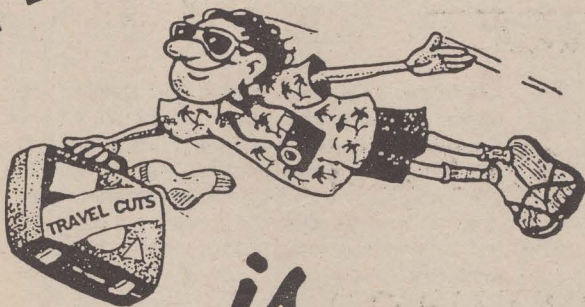

DISPATCH: HOW MUCH TIME WOULD ONE HAVE TO DEVOTE TO DAL PHOTO, IS THERE A BIG WORKLOAD?

PAULL: The amount of time spent working on assignments is really up to the individual. I've seen some people spend more time here than they do sleeping, but really, it only takes a couple of hours a week to be an active member.

DISPATCH: WHAT SHOULD SOMEONE DO IN ORDER TO GET INVOLVED OR FIND OUT MORE?

PAULL: We're in room 320 of the SUB if anyone wants to drop by. Whether you want to join or you're just curious there's usually someone here that would be more than happy to answer questions.

JEAN CHRÉTIEN

SEPTEMBER 28

On February 27, 1986 Jean Chrétien shocked the Canadian public when he resigned, ending a 23-year political career. Almost from the time of his resignation rumours have been circulating about his possible return to public life. Will Chrétien ever lead the Federal Liberal Party? It's your opportunity to ask him as he speaks Straight From The Heart.

STEPHEN LEWIS

OCTOBER 19

On October 3, 1984 Prime Minister Brian Mulroney asked Stephen Lewis to become Canada's ambassador to the United Nations. This was an unusual request for the former leader of the Ontario New Democratic Party. Widely acknowledged as a brilliant speaker, parliamentarian and diplomat, Lewis has put all of these talents to use at the U.N. in the last four years. Stephen Lewis — a man with a world view.
