

The Buchanan Government Doesn't Believe in Human Rights for Everyone.

Why else are they stalling on a new Human Rights Act?

Thousands of Nova Scotians need protection from discrimination.

Without the protection of a new Act, people will continue to be fired, turned out of their apartments, denied service in restaurants, hotels and countless other places just because they are gay or lesbian, single parents, or have suffered mental illness.

This could happen to your friends, neighbours and relatives - even you.
